Compliance Notice (Section 75)

Company Secretary
Meteor Mobile Communications Limited
No.1 Heuston South Quarter

Competition and Consumer
Protection Commission

Dublin 2

I, Deirdre Fearon, an authorised officer of the Competition and Consumer Protection Commission, duly authorised under Section 35 of the Competition and Consumer Protection Act 2014, hereby give you notice, pursuant to Section 75(2) of the Consumer Protection Act 2007, that I am of the opinion that you have contravened an enactment specified in Schedule 5 to the Consumer Protection Act 2007.

The contravention herein relates to Meteor's website, www.meteor.ie.

Statement of alleged contravention:

That you Meteor Mobile Communications Limited, a trader, as of 12th March 2015, for the purposes of the European Union (Consumer Information, Cancellation and Other Rights) Regulations 2013 (the relevant enactment specified in Schedule 5 to the Consumer Protection Act 2007, as amended by Regulation 33(f) of S.I. No. 484 of 2013) (hereinafter 'the Regulations') have failed to give or make available the following information requirements for a consumer before he or she is bound by a distance contract:

1. Information on the right to cancel required by paragraph (l) of Schedule 2 to the Regulations in plain and intelligible language and in a way appropriate to the means of distance communication used. [Regulation 10(1)(a)]
2. The cancellation form set out in Part B of Schedule 3. [Regulation 10(1)(b)]

My opinion

I am of the opinion that by failing to give or make available such information and a cancellation form as required by Regulation 10(1)(a) and Regulation 10(1)(b) you have contravened Regulation 10(1) of S.I. No. 484 of 2013, an enactment specified in Schedule 5 to the Consumer Protection Act 2007. The contravention of Regulation 10(1) is an offence as described by Regulation 10(10).

The reasons for my opinion in this regard are based on the following:

1. Your company, Meteor Mobile Communications Limited (hereinafter 'Meteor'), as a legal person can be described as a 'trader' for the purposes of the Regulations.
2. Your company, Meteor, has a website which provides a facility for consumers to enter into distance contracts with Meteor. A 'distance contract' is described in Regulation 2(1) as meaning 'a contract concluded between a trader and a consumer under an organised distance sales or service provision scheme without the simultaneous physical presence of the trader and the consumer, and with the exclusive use of one or more means of distance communication up to and including the time at which the contract is concluded'.
3. I believe that the contracts you enter into with consumers through the website can be classified as 'distance contracts' to which Part 3 of the Regulations apply. Part 3 provides mandatory information requirements that a trader must provide to a consumer.
4. As this is a distance contract a right of cancellation applies pursuant to Part 4, Regulation 14. How a consumer exercises that right of cancellation is detailed in Regulation 17.
5. The trader is required to provide consumers with information on their right to cancel as specified in paragraph (I) of Schedule 2.
6. I do not believe that the information specified in paragraph (I) of Schedule 2 has been provided by means of the instructions on cancellation set out in Part A of Schedule 3.
7. I believe that the Meteor website fails to inform consumers of the statutory right to cancel pursuant to Regulation 14.

8. The Meteor website does not give or make available the information specified in Schedule 2 as detailed in Regulation 17 and as required by Regulation 10(1)(a).
9. The trader is required to give or make available to the consumer a cancellation form as set out in Part B of Schedule 3 which can be used by the consumer to exercise this right of cancellation as required by Regulation 10(1)(b).
10. The Meteor website does not give or make available the cancellation form as set out in Part B of Schedule 3 as required by Regulation 10(1)(b).

Compliance direction and requirements

1. Meteor Mobile Communications Limited, a trader, is hereby directed to comply with the obligations as provided for under Regulation 10(1)(a) of S.I. No. 484 of 2013 by giving or making available to the consumer the information on the right to cancel required by paragraph (I) of Schedule 2 to the Regulations in plain and intelligible language and in a way appropriate to the means of distance communication used.
 2. Meteor Mobile Communications Limited, a trader, is hereby directed to comply with the obligations as provided for under Regulation 10(1)(b) of S.I. No. 484 of 2013 by giving or making available to the consumer the cancellation form set out in Part B of Schedule 3.
 3. I further consider it appropriate, in order to remedy the contravention, that Meteor Mobile Communications Limited informs consumers who since the 14th June 2014 have concluded contracts with Meteor Mobile Communications Limited, such contracts being contracts to which S.I. No. 484 of 2013 applies, of the information on the right to cancel required by paragraph (I) of Schedule 2 to the Regulations in plain and intelligible language and in a way appropriate to the means of distance communication used and to give or make available to those consumers the cancellation form set out in Part B of Schedule 3.
1. You must comply with this compliance direction and requirements by 20th May 2015.
 2. You may appeal this Compliance Notice to the District Court in the district court district in which the notice is served within 14 days after its service.
 3. The form and manner of such an appeal is that to be found in the District Court Rules, Schedule D, Form No: 100.1. This is available from the registrar at your local District Court office.

4. In the event that you decide to appeal the Compliance Notice, you must, at the same time, notify the Competition and Consumer Protection Commission at the above address. You must also notify the Competition and Consumer Protection Commission of the grounds for the appeal.
5. If an appeal is not made in accordance with Section 75 of the Consumer Protection Act 2007 and within 14 days after service of the Compliance Notice, this notice will be treated as not disputed, you will be deemed to have accepted the notice and have agreed to comply with the compliance direction and requirements and any failure or refusal to so comply is an offence and, on summary conviction, you will be liable to the fine and penalties set out in Part 5, Chapter 4 of the Consumer Protection Act 2007.
