2 IDENTITY OF THE DATA CONTROLLER

- 2.1 For the purposes of Data Protection Legislation, the Data Controller is the CCPC, an independent statutory body with a dual mandate to enforce competition and consumer protection law in Ireland which has its address at Bloom House, Railway Street, Dublin 1, D01 C576.

3 CONTACT DETAILS OF THE DATA PROTECTION OFFICER

3.1 The contact details of the CCPC's Data Protection Officer are as follows:

Name: Emily Barry
Email Address: dataprotection@ccpc.ie
Address: Bloom House, Railway Street, Dublin 1, D01 C576.

4 WHEN DOES THIS PRIVACY STATEMENT APPLY

4.1 This Privacy Statement applies to Data that we collect, use and otherwise process about you in connection with your use of our Website. The Data we process will depend on how you use our Website.

5 ACCEPTANCE OF THIS PRIVACY STATEMENT

5.1 By using this Website and by disclosing your Data to us, you consent to the collection, storage, processing, use and disclosure of your Data by us as described in this Privacy Statement. If you do not agree with or are not comfortable with any aspect of this Privacy Statement, your only remedy is to discontinue using our Website. We reserve the right to modify this Privacy Statement at any time. Your continued use of any part of our Website following notification or posting of such changes will constitute your acceptance of those changes.

5.2 In the event you have any concerns about this Privacy Statement, please contact us by email addressed to dataprotection@ccpc.ie and/or by post to Emily Barry, Data Protection Officer, Competition and Consumer Protection Commission, Bloom House, Railway Street, Dublin 1, D01 C576.

6 INFORMATION WE MAY COLLECT FROM YOU

6.1 The Data we process about you broadly falls into five main categories:

- (i) Contact Information;
- (ii) Information provided voluntarily by using the subscription form on our Website to subscribe to our consumer newsletter;
- (iii) Information provided voluntarily by signing up to receive email alerts about CCPC news and the latest information about mergers;
- (iv) Information provided voluntarily by completing the "Contact Us" form on the "Consumer" section of our Website; and
- (v) Information provided voluntarily by completing the "Contact Us" form on the "Business" section of our Website.

6.2 We collect your Data from limited sources. The table below sets out the different types of Data that we collect and the sources we collect it from. Please note that if you do not provide us with your contact information we will not be able to provide you with any information you request.

6.3 The Data we collect from you or through our Website helps us to manage our relationship with you, but also to comply with our legal obligations or for the conduct of our statutory functions. The Data we collect, the basis of processing and the purposes of processing are detailed below. Sometimes, these activities are carried out by third parties, (see "Sharing of Data" section below).

6.4 For some processing activities, we consider that more than one lawful basis may be relevant – depending on the circumstances.

Category	Type of Data	Purpose of processing	Basis of processing
Contact Information	Name, email address and telephone number (if you have provided this information to us), the time, date and details of your visit to our Website, service usage data, device number, source and destination of IP addresses, location based data and the resources you access on our website and any other information that you may provide by filling in forms on our website. Calls to our consumer helpline are recorded for training purposes.	This information is processed to enable the CCPC to: (i) deal with and respond to your request, query or complaint, (ii) ensure compliance with the CCPC's legal obligations and corporate governance requirements, and (iii) perform its statutory functions and activities.	Consent, where the personal data relates to the person supplying it to the CCPC and has been supplied to the CCPC voluntarily.  In relation to other personal data (e.g. personal data relating to a third party and/or personal data which is supplied as a result of the exercise of the CCPC's statutory powers), processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out by the CCPC in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the CCPC and/or to comply with legal obligations and our statutory functions, our contract with you, or to take steps for entering into our contract with you.
Subscribing to the consumer newsletter	Email address	This information is processed to provide individuals with our consumer newsletter, to monitor the performance of our newsletter and to ascertain whether the information that we provide in our newsletter is relevant and useful for consumers.
Subscribing to received email alerts about CCPC news and the latest information about mergers	Email address	This information is processed to provide individuals with CCPC news and merger information.
Information provided voluntarily by completing the "Contact Us" form on the "Consumer" section of our Website		Responding to your enquiries.
Information provided voluntarily by completing the "Contact Us" form on the "Business" section of our Website		Responding to your enquiries.

Please note that if you subscribe to the CCPC consumer newsletter, your email address will be automatically added to the subscriber database on Campaign Monitor, an online email marketing company based in the United States of America which provides services to the CCPC regarding the newsletter. If you unsubscribe from our newsletter, your email address will be retained by Campaign Monitor for a maximum period of three months solely in order to ensure you are not contacted again and will be permanently removed from Campaign Monitor's database after this period.

Please also note that if you sign up to receive email alerts about CCPC news and the latest information about mergers, your email address is automatically added to the subscriber database on Mailgun, an online email marketing company based in the United States of America which provided services to the CCPC regarding the email alerts. If you unsubscribe from our news or merger alerts, your email address is deleted from the Mailgun database immediately.

7 WHAT WILL THE CCPC USE MY DATA FOR?

We collect and process information about you for the purposes of complying with our legal duties and for other legitimate purposes. We may use your Data to:

- Send our consumer newsletter (if you have subscribed to receive the newsletter)
- Issue email alerts about CCPC news and the latest information about mergers (if you have signed up to receive these alerts)
- Ensure that content from our website is presented in the most effective, responsive and compatible manner for you and for your computer or device;
- Respond to your requests for information and other communication or correspondence you may submit to us;
- Improve the services that we provide to you;
- Provide you with the information or services that you request from us;
- Carry out statistical analysis;
- Allow you to participate in interactive features of our website, when you choose to do so;
- Carry out activities necessary to the running of the CCPC, including systems testing, network monitoring, staff training and quality control; and
- Notify you about changes to our website, services or policies.

8 DISCLOSURE OF YOUR DATA

8.1 Service Providers

We use third party service providers who work for us in the provision of our services. For example, the CCPC uses a Customer Relationship Management tool licensed to the CCPC by Microsoft to track and record all consumer contacts and certain other public contacts with the CCPC. In providing the services, your Data will, where applicable, be processed by the service provider on our behalf.

We will check any third party that we use to ensure that they can provide sufficient guarantees regarding the confidentiality and security of your Data. We will have written contracts with them which provide assurances regarding the protections that they will give to your Data and their compliance with our data security standards and international transfer restrictions.

8.2 Disclosures to Third Parties

In certain circumstances, we may share and/or are obliged to share your Data with third parties for the purposes described above and in accordance with Data Protection Legislation.

These third parties include:

- regulatory authorities;
- financial institutions;
- auditors;
- external professional advisors;
- others, where it is permitted by law, or where we have your consent; and
- any other bodies as set out in section 24(1) of the Competition and Consumer Protection Act 2014.

- 8.3 These organisations will also use your Data as a “Data Controller” – they will have their own privacy notices which you should read, and they have their own responsibilities to comply with applicable Data Protection Legislation.
- 8.4 As far as possible, we will not disclose your Data without consent. However, when we investigate a complaint we may need to share Data with the other concerned parties. The CCPC understands the need for maintaining confidentiality and will, where possible, take appropriate action to protect your Data including your identity. We will not disclose your Data to third parties except in instances where an individual has consented to the disclosure, or where we are obliged or permitted by law to disclose the Data.
- 8.5 We may also access and/or disclose your Data if such action is necessary to: (a) conform with the law or comply with legal process served on us; (b) protect and defend our rights or property including, without limitation, the security and integrity of our network and systems; or (c) act under exigent circumstances to protect the personal safety of users of our services or members of the public. We may also disclose your Data to complete or answer a request or query that you have submitted to the CCPC.

9 TRANSFERS OUTSIDE THE EUROPEAN ECONOMIC AREA

- 9.1 Your Data may be transferred, stored and processed in one or more countries outside the European Economic Area (“EEA”), for example, when one of our service providers use employees or equipment based outside the EEA. For transfers of your Data to third parties outside of the EEA, we take additional steps in line with Data Protection Legislation. We will put in place adequate safeguards with respect to the protection of your privacy, fundamental rights and freedoms, and the exercise of your rights, for example in certain instances we will establish an adequate level of protection through EU Standard Contractual Clauses based on the EU Commission’s model clauses.
- 9.2 If you would like to see a copy of any relevant provisions, please contact the CCPC’s Data Protection Officer (see “Contact Us” section below).

10 HOW IS MY DATA SECURED

- 10.1 The security and confidentiality of your Data is extremely important to us. The CCPC operate and use appropriate technical and physical security measures to protect your Data.
- 10.2 We have in particular taken appropriate security measures to protect your Data from accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorised disclosure of, or access. Access is only granted on a need-to-know basis to those people whose roles require them to process your Data. In addition, our service providers are also selected carefully and required to use appropriate protective measures.
- 10.3 However, please note that, as no data transmission over the Internet can be guaranteed as 100% secure, we cannot ensure or warrant the security of any information that you transmit to us and you transfer your Data at your own risk. We endeavour to use and keep under review appropriate technical, security and organisational measures (including staff training and awareness).

11 STORAGE OF DATA

- 11.1 We will keep your personal data for as long as it is necessary to fulfil the purposes for which it was collected as described above and in accordance with our legal and regulatory obligations. This may mean that some Data is held for longer than other information. The criteria we use to determine data retention periods for Data includes the following:
- 11.1.1 Retention in case of queries and complaints; we will retain it for a reasonable period after the query or complaint has been resolved or, if a formal investigation is opened by the CCPC in respect of the query or complaint, for a reasonable period after the conclusion of such investigation and/or any subsequent related legal proceedings;
- 11.1.2 Retention in case of investigations; we will retain it for a reasonable period after the conclusion of the investigation and/or any subsequent related legal proceedings;
- 11.1.3 Retention in case of reviews of mergers and acquisitions; we will retain it for a reasonable period after the CCPC issues its determination in relation to the merger or acquisition or, if the CCPC's decision is challenged, for a reasonable period after the conclusion of any subsequent related legal proceedings; and 11.1.4 Retention in accordance with legal and regulatory requirements; we will consider whether we need to retain it after the periods described in 11.1.1 to 11.1.3 above because of a legal or regulatory requirement (e.g. as set out in the National Archives Act 1986, as amended).

11.2 If you would like further information about our data retention practices, please contact the CCPC's Data Protection Officer (see the "Contact Us" section below).

12 LINKS TO OTHER WEBSITES

12.1 Our Website may, from time to time, contain links to and from other websites and web platforms. In addition, third parties' websites may also provide links to our website. If you follow a link to any of those websites or web platforms, please note that those websites and web platforms have their own privacy policies and that we do not accept any responsibility or liability for those policies. Please check those policies before you submit any Data to those websites.

12.2 We do not accept, and we disclaim, any responsibility for the privacy statements and information protection practices of any third party website (whether or not such website is linked on or to our website). These links are provided to you for convenience purposes only, and you access them at your own risk. It is your responsibility to check the third party website's privacy statement before you submit any Data to their website.

13 YOUR RIGHTS

13.1 You may have various rights under Data Protection Legislation. However, in certain circumstances, these rights may be restricted<sup>1</sup>. In particular, your rights may be restricted where this is necessary: (i) for the prevention, detection, investigation and prosecution of criminal offences, (ii) in contemplation of or for the establishment, exercise or defence of a legal claim or legal proceedings (whether before a court, tribunal, statutory body or an administrative or out-of-court procedure), or (iii) for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the CCPC. Therefore, the CCPC considers that, in most cases, these rights will not apply in connection with the performance of the CCPC's competition and consumer protection law enforcement functions and activities.

Subject to the above, your rights under Data Protection Legislation may include (as relevant):

Your right	What does it mean?	How do I execute this right?	Conditions to exercise?
Right of access	Subject to certain conditions, you are entitled to have access to your personal data which we hold (this is more commonly known as submitting a "data subject access request").	Requests for such information should be made in writing to dataprotection@ccpc.ie . If possible, you should specify the type of information you would like to see to ensure that our disclosure is meeting your expectations.	We must be able to verify your identity. Your request may not affect the rights and freedoms of others, e.g. privacy and confidentiality rights of other individuals and/or businesses.
Right of data portability	Subject to certain conditions, you are entitled to receive the data which you have provided to us	Requests should be made in writing to dataprotection@ccpc.ie . If possible, you should specify the type of	The GDPR does not establish a general right to data portability. This right only applies if <sup>1</sup> Article 23 of the General Data Protection Regulation, which is transposed into Irish law by section 59 of the Data Protection Act 2018, sets out the circumstances in which your rights may be restricted.

It affects only personal data that was "provided" by you. Therefore, it does not, as a rule, apply to personal data that was created by the CCPC or supplied to the CCPC by any other individual and/or business.
Rights in relation to inaccurate personal or incomplete data	You may challenge the accuracy or completeness of personal data which we process about you. If it is found that personal data is inaccurate, you are entitled to have the inaccurate data removed, corrected or completed, as appropriate.	We encourage you to notify us of any changes regarding your personal data as soon as they occur, including changes to your contact details.  Requests should be made in writing to dataprotection@ccpc.ie .	This right only applies to your own personal data. When exercising this right, please be as specific as possible.
Right to object to or restrict our data processing	Subject to certain conditions, you have the right to object to or ask us to restrict the processing of your personal data. This may apply (i) where we have to comply with a legal obligation, (ii) in case of bringing legal proceedings (including any legal proceedings relating to an investigation conducted by the CCPC which are not brought directly by the CCPC) or defending legal proceedings, or (iii) where retention periods apply by law or under the CCPC's internal data retention policies.
Right to withdrawal	You have the right to withdraw your consent to any processing for which you have previously given that consent.	Requests should be made in writing to dataprotection@ccpc.ie .	If you withdraw your consent, this will only take effect for the future.

14 YOUR RIGHT TO LODGE A COMPLAINT WITH A SUPERVISORY AUTHORITY

- 14.1 If you are unhappy about any aspect of the way we collect, share or use your personal data, please let us know using the contact details below.
- 14.2 You also have a right to complain to the Office of the Data Protection Commission at Canal House, Station Road, Portarlington, Co. Laois by telephone at 1890 25 2231 and/or by email to info@dataprotection.ie.

15 CHANGES TO OUR PRIVACY STATEMENT

- 15.1 We reserve the right to change this Privacy Statement at any time at our sole discretion. If we make changes, we will post these changes here so that you can see what information we gather, how we might use that information and in what circumstances we may disclose it. By continuing to use our website after we post any such changes, you accept and agree to this Privacy Statement as modified.

16 CONTACT US

- 16.1 Questions, comments and requests regarding this Privacy Statement and the information we hold are welcome and should be addressed to Emily Barry at dataprotection@ccpc.ie or alternatively you can write to us at Emily Barry, Data Protection Officer, Competition and Consumer Protection Commission, Bloom House, Railway Street, Dublin 1, D01 C576.
