

MERGER ANNOUNCEMENT - M/21/059

Competition and Consumer Protection Commission clears proposed acquisition by Flextronics International USA, Inc. of sole control of ACS Acquisitions, Inc.

03 November 2021

The Competition and Consumer Protection Commission has cleared the proposed transaction whereby Flextronics International USA, Inc., through its wholly owned subsidiary Project Lion Inc., would acquire sole control of ACS Acquisitions, Inc. and its subsidiaries including Anord Mardix (Ireland) Limited. The proposed transaction was notified under the Competition Act 2002, as amended, on 18 October 2021.

The Commission has formed the view that the Proposed Transaction will not substantially lessen competition in any market for goods or services in the State. The Commission will publish the reasons for its determination on its website no later than 60 working days after the date of the determination and after allowing the parties the opportunity to request that confidential information be removed from the published version.

Additional Information

Flextronics International USA (“Flex”) is a global technology and supply chain services provider. Flex assists its customers design and build products, through providing product development lifecycle services, from innovation, design, and engineering, to manufacturing, supply chain solutions and logistics.

ACS Acquisitions, Inc and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Anord Mardix (Ireland) Limited is an electrical engineering and manufacturing firm specialising in critical power solutions for data centres and the cloud computing industries.