

MERGER ANNOUNCEMENT M/21/064 - BHSL/MOTA-ENGIL

Section 21 of the Competition Act 2002

Competition and Consumer Protection Commission clears proposed acquisition by Biomass Heating Solutions Limited of Mota-Engil Ireland Services Limited, Mota-Engil Ireland Construction Limited and Mota-Engil International Construction (UK) Limited

21 December

The Competition and Consumer Protection Commission has today cleared the proposed transaction whereby Biomass Heating Solutions (“BHSL”), through its wholly-owned subsidiary Glas Glan Holdings Limited, would acquire sole control of Mota-Engil Ireland Services Limited, Mota-Engil Ireland Construction Limited and Mota-Engil International Construction (UK) Limited. The proposed transaction was notified under the Competition Act 2002, as amended, on 15 November 2021.

The Commission has formed the view that the proposed transaction will not substantially lessen competition in any market for goods or services in the State. The Commission will publish the reasons for its determination on its website no later than 60 working days after the date of the determination and after allowing the parties the opportunity to request that confidential information be removed from the published version.

Additional Information

Glas Glan Holdings Limited is a holding company wholly-owned by BHSL. BHSL is the parent company of the BHSL Group. BHSL is active in waste disposal and processing, as well as in water and wastewater treatment.

The Target Companies are part of the Mota-Engil Group, a multinational operator active in the engineering, construction, environmental, transport concessions, energy, mining and tourism sectors internationally.
