

MERGER ANNOUNCEMENT M/25/045 – BWG/PERRY’S CASH AND CARRY

Section 21 of the Competition Act 2002

Competition and Consumer Protection Commission clears proposed acquisition whereby BWG Foods Unlimited Company would acquire sole control of Perry’s Cash and Carry Limited.

1 October 2025

The Competition and Consumer Protection Commission has today cleared, subject to a number of legally binding commitments, the proposed transaction whereby BWG Foods Unlimited Company, a wholly owned indirect subsidiary of BWG Group Unlimited Company, would acquire sole control of Perry’s Cash and Carry Limited. The proposed transaction was notified under the Competition Act 2002, as amended, on 31 July 2025.

The Commission has formed the view that the proposed transaction will not substantially lessen competition in any market for goods or services in the State. The Commission will publish the reasons for its determination on its website no later than 60 working days after the date of the determination and after allowing the parties the opportunity to request that confidential information be removed from the published version.

Additional Information

BWG Foods Unlimited Company is involved in the wholesale distribution of food and grocery goods to its affiliated stores and to stores operated by independent retailers. BWG Foods Unlimited Company is also involved in the wholesale distribution of food and beverages to food-service customers and to the licensed trade. BWG Foods Unlimited Company also operates a distribution center and a number of cash and carry outlets in the State.

Perry's Cash and Carry Limited is involved in the wholesale distribution of food and grocery goods to the retail sector, including supermarkets, convenience stores and forecourts. Perry's Cash and Carry Limited is also involved in the wholesale distribution of food and beverages to food-service customers and to the licensed trade.