I, , an Authorised Officer of the Competition and Consumer Protection Commission (the "CCPC"), duly appointed under section 35 of the Competition and Consumer Protection Act 2014, hereby give you notice, pursuant to section 75(2) of the Consumer Protection Act 2007 (the "2007 Act") that I am of the opinion that you have engaged in a prohibited act or practice, namely a prohibited commercial practice under section 55(1)(q) of the 2007 Act.

A. Statement of Alleged Contravention

1. That you, Donal Skehan, a trader for the purposes of the 2007 Act, from 1st December 2024 to 23rd April 2025, have engaged in a prohibited commercial practice by using editorial content in the media to promote a product (where a trader has paid for that promotion) and it is not made clear that the promotion is a paid promotion, whether in the content itself or in any oral, written, visual or descriptive representation in the promotion.
2. Such a prohibited commercial practice, as described by section 55(1)(q) of the 2007 Act, is an offence contrary to section 56 of that Act.
3. Further, such prohibited commercial practice is a "prohibited act or practice" in accordance with section 67(c) of the 2007 Act.

B. My Opinion

1. I am of the opinion that you, Donal Skehan, engaged in the prohibited act or practice outlined in the statement of alleged contravention above, by failing to disclose that products relating to 'Wind Shore Goods' promoted on your Instagram account @donalskehan were promoted in a paid capacity, and without using appropriate disclosure labels such as 'Ad', '#ad' etc. We suggest that you familiarise yourself with the CCPC & ASAI Guidance on Influencer Advertising and Marketing¹, which provides useful information regarding disclosure language, and the scenarios when such disclosures must be made clear to consumers.

C. The Reasons for my Opinion

1. My opinion follows an online inspection of your Instagram account @donalskehan, inspecting publications on your account between 1st December 2024 and 23rd April 2025.
2. The reasons for my opinion are based on the following:
 - a. You, Donal Skehan, operating the Instagram account @donalskehan, are a person and can be described as a “trader” for the purposes of the 2007 Act. Trader is defined in section 2 of the 2007 Act.
 - b. Wind Shore Goods Limited is a legal person and can be described as a “trader” for the purposes of the 2007 Act.
 - c. Wind Shore Goods Limited paid² you, either directly or indirectly, to use the editorial content in the media identified below to promote a product and such editorial content fails to clearly and appropriately disclose that the promotion is a paid promotion;
 1. A post by @donalskehan promoting a Wind Shore Goods pop-up and cooking demo; dated 8th December 2024.
 2. A post by @windshoregoods in collaboration with @donalskehan with the caption “Meet our Founder, Donal Skehan”; dated 14th March 2025.
 3. A post by @windshoregoods in collaboration with @donalskehan promoting “Cedar Bloom Candle”; dated 20th March 2025

D. Compliance Directions and Requirements

We note that you are unable to retrospectively insert disclosure labels in the collaborative posts identified in 2 and 3 of Section C of this notice. This direction only applies to those posts in relation to which it is possible for you to retrospectively insert clear and appropriate disclosure labels (i.e. editorial content at 1 Section C above).

2. You, Donal Skehan, a trader, are hereby directed to ensure that, in all future instances, where a trader has paid you to use editorial content in the media to promote a product or service, you make it clear that such promotion is a paid promotion. This includes content promoting your “own brand” products and services. You may achieve this by using clear and appropriate primary disclosure labels such as ‘Ad’ or ‘#Ad’. Using secondary disclosure labels such as ‘Own Brand’ or ‘#OwnBrand’, in addition to primary disclosure labels, is at your own discretion.
