

MERGER ANNOUNCEMENT M/25/028 – MAXOL / O’MAHONY SPA GLEN

Section 21 of the Competition Act 2002

Competition and Consumer Protection Commission clears proposed acquisition whereby Maxol Limited would acquire sole control of O’Mahony Spa Glen Limited.

7 October 2025

The Competition and Consumer Protection Commission has cleared the proposed transaction whereby Maxol Limited would acquire sole control of O’Mahony Spa Glen Limited. The proposed transaction was notified under the Competition Act 2002, as amended, on 17 September 2025.

The Commission has formed the view that the proposed transaction will not substantially lessen competition in any market for goods or services in the State. The Commission will publish the reasons for its determination on its website no later than 60 working days after the date of the determination and after allowing the parties the opportunity to request that confidential information be removed from the published version.

Additional Information

Maxol Limited is a subsidiary of Maxol Energy Limited, which in turn is a wholly owned subsidiary of McMullan Bros. Limited. Maxol's primary business in the State is in the provision of oil and petroleum products.

O’Mahony Spa Glen Limited is the owner and operator of a motor fuel service station with attached forecourt convenience store in Spa Glen, Mallow, Co. Cork. The service station currently operated by O’Mahony Spa Glen Limited currently operates under the Maxol brand.
