How to be Good with Money - Series Finale

In the final episode of the current series we travel to Galway, and meet the Searle family. They earn a decent income but they are constantly in overdraft with no scope to save.

The Searles want Eoin's help to plan for their children's college education and to take a family holiday.

Will they be able to reach their goals? Tune in to RTÉ 1, Thursday at 8.30 pm to find out.
