

Coimisiún um
Iomaíocht agus
Cosaint Tomhaltóirí

Competition and
Consumer Protection
Commission

Hi there, we hope that you and your loved ones are safe and well.

In this month's newsletter we show you how to stay ahead of your finances, give you tips for a safe Halloween and more. Remember, you can visit our COVID-19 Information Hub or follow us on social media to keep up with the latest consumer news.

Struggling to keep up with your spending?

To avoid running out of money before payday, a budget is a great way to stay ahead of your finances. The CCPC budget planner Money Tool can help you to keep control of your spending.

Check it out

Tips for a safe and spooky Halloween

Much has changed in 2020, but our love for the fun and fright of Halloween is strong as ever. Follow our tips to make sure you and your little ones don't have any unwanted scares this Halloween.

Read more

Brexit and your consumer rights

From 1 January 2021, there will be changes for consumers who buy online from businesses in Great Britain. Consumers will face new charges and changes to their rights. Details may vary, depending on the nature of any Brexit deal, but consumers should check where their goods are coming from before they buy.

Learn more

CCPC launches Ábhair Airgid

The CCPC recently launched Ábhair Airgid, an Irish-language personal finance resource for Junior Cycle Home Economics and Business Studies teachers and students.

Ábhair Airgid was developed in conjunction with An Chomhairle um Oideachas Gaeltachta agus Gaelscolaíochta (COGG) for those teaching these subjects in Irish.

Find out more

Your money: making it work – from home

With many of us now working from home this could be a good time to review your finances. Here are some tips to help you make the most out of the money saving benefits that working from home can bring.

Read more

Recent product recalls

Find out about recent recalls of Baker Ross toys, a Gowen & Bradshaw battery charger and cars from Ford. Check out the details in the product safety section on our website, or on our Facebook page.

Find out more

Visit www.ccpc.ie for free, expert information on your consumer rights and personal finance.

Competition and Consumer Protection Commission
Bloom House, Railway Street, Dublin 1, D01 C576

www.ccpc.ie/consumers/privacy www.ccpc.ie/consumers/legal

Preferences | Unsubscribe

