

Coimisiún um
Iomaíocht agus
Cosaint Tomhaltóirí

Competition and
Consumer Protection
Commission

In this month's newsletter we look at how Brexit impacts on your consumer rights and introduce our new remote learning hub. Remember, you can follow us on social media to keep up with the latest consumer news. For specific queries and issues, please call our helpline on (01) 402 5555.

Brexit means changes
for online shopping.

Find more at ccpc.ie
or call 01 402 5555

Brexit is here!

As a result of Brexit, changes to consumer rights came into effect on 1 January 2021 for goods bought online from UK traders. Items received from the UK (excluding Northern Ireland) are also subject to VAT and other charges. But how do you know where a business is based, what consumer rights apply and whether you have to pay additional taxes and charges?

Find out more

How To Be Good With Money

Have you tuned into the new series?

In this week's episode we meet the Murphy family, Rachel and James and their two young daughters. The couple are saddled with huge debt. Rachel and James, who are serial renters, long to give the girls stability by owning their own home. They have spent years talking about it rather than taking steps towards their goal.

Tune in this Thursday on RTÉ One at 8:30pm to find out what happens.

More

CCPC launches remote learning hub

If you have second-level students at home learning remotely, and you are trying to teach them about money, our Parents' Hub, part of our free-to-use Money Matters site, is here to help you.

Check it out

Should you book a summer holiday abroad?

Many of us are dreaming of sunnier destinations this year. With COVID-19 still impacting travel, check out this RTÉ article with advice from the CCPC on how you can protect yourself if you are still considering making travel plans for later in the year.

Read more

Recent product recalls

Find out about recent recalls of a Lego Friends magazine sold through Tesco, select baby sleep bags sold through TK Maxx, Magical Woodland Duvet and Pillowcase set from Next and cars from Hyundai and Volvo. Check out the details in the product safety section on our website, or on our Facebook page.

Find out more

Visit www.ccpc.ie for free, expert information on your consumer rights and personal finance.

Competition and Consumer Protection Commission
Bloom House, Railway Street, Dublin 1, D01 C576

www.ccpc.ie/consumers/privacy www.ccpc.ie/consumers/legal

Preferences | Unsubscribe